

STUART COMMUNITY

CONCERT BAND

PROUDLY PRESENTS

THE AMERICAN SONGBOOK

SUNDAY, JANUARY 24TH | 2PM

The Great American Songbook is drawn from musical theater, film, and Tin Pan Alley. It represents an influential canon of popular songs and jazz standards mainly written from the 1920s through the 1950s by Richard Rodgers, Jerry Herman, Spike Jones, and George Gershwin, etc. You'll hear Symphonic Highlights from South Pacific, Hello Dolly, Gershwin Portrait, Salute to Spike Jones, and Slaughter on 10th Avenue. The music was ahead of its time and is timeless in its popularity.

RETURN TO CLASSICS

SUNDAY, MARCH 14TH | 2PM

This concert will feature music that was originally composed for wind ensembles as opposed to orchestra or brass band. Wind ensembles have no strings, except string bass or harp, but usually do have percussion. Please come enjoy band classics like An Irish Washerwoman, Variations On A Korean Folk Song, Shenandoah and Morton Gould's, American Salute. Classic band literature familiar to band musicians of all generations.

MUSIC KALEIDOSCOPE

SUNDAY, APRIL 18TH | 2PM

Like any kaleidoscope, it runs the gamut of colors and emotions. A full array of style and energy to fulfill your soul. We will be performing Shostokovich's famous Waltz #2, Toccata For Band, Julie Giroux's Overture In Five Flat, and Robert Thurston's Boundless. This concert promises to have a spectrum of emotion for everyone; new and old, reflective and inspiring!

DIRECTOR'S FAVORITES

SUNDAY, MAY 23RD | 2PM

This concert will feature some of Jim and Keith's favorites over the years. If they like them, you are almost assured to like them too. You will likely hear Philip Sparke's arrangement of Queen Symphonic Highlights, Ralph Vaughn Williams' Folk Song Suite, Gustav Holst's famous Second Suite in F, the Symphonic Suite from Star Trek, and John Williams' Midway March. A wonderful way to conclude our 2026-2027 concert season- new and old favorites for everyone!

Tickets $15 Advance | $17 Door

Tickets can be purchase online, walk in or day of

FOR MORE INFORMATION,
CALL 772.223.7800

COUNCIL ON AGING
MARTIN COUNTY

900 SE Salerno Road • Stuart, FL 34997 • www.coamartin.org

Scan
TO PURCHASE
TICKETS!

